MARHAGE AND Dryonce in Saxon Times,—The origin of the question in the matrimonial service, "Who giveth this woman to be married to this man?" may be traced to Saxon times, for every saxon lady had a "mundbora" or guardian without whose consent she could not be married. The Saxons regarded matrimony as a holy estate; death alone could part the married. A layman who was a widower, or a widow might marry again, but the church, though it did not prevent such marriages, only tolerated
